

HEALTH
PROFESSIONS
ACCREDITATION
COLLABORATIVE
FORUM

Australia's accreditation authorities for regulated health professionals

Communiqué: Health Professions Accreditation Collaborative Forum – Review of accreditation assignments

The Health Professions Accreditation Collaborative Forum (the Forum), is the Forum of accreditation authorities with the National Registration and Accreditation Scheme (the Scheme).

Scheduled review of accreditation assignments

National Boards and AHPRA have recently completed a scheduled review of accreditation arrangements. The review informed National Board decisions about the assignment of accreditation functions from mid 2019, when the current terms end.

More information regarding the review can be found at <https://www.ahpra.gov.au/News.aspx>

Review of accreditation arrangements – assignment of accreditation functions

The Consultation Report, August 2018, regarding the review of accreditation arrangements is available on AHPRA's website and can be found at

<https://www.ahpra.gov.au/News/Consultations/Past-Consultations.aspx>

The Forum continues to work with all the member accreditation authorities in ensuring high quality accreditation of health programs to provide suitably qualified graduates to serve the health needs of the Australian Community.

Ms Bronwyn Clark

Chair

Health Professions Accreditation Collaborative Forum

August 2018

Future communiqués will be published on the Forum's website and sent to interested stakeholders. Please feel free to forward the communiqués to colleagues who may be interested in the Forum's work, or email info@hpacf.org.au for inclusion in our mailing list.

<http://www.hpacf.org.au>