Communiqué Health Professions Accreditation Collaborative Forum Executive Officer 2025

The Chair and Members of the Forum are pleased to announce and welcome Ms Amelia Druhan who has been appointed as the Forum's first Executive Officer.

Ms Druhan is a registered health professional and an accomplished executive, as well as an experienced educator with a deep and enduring commitment to addressing inequity in health and education outcomes.

"Amelia has extensive expertise spanning education, healthcare, executive leadership, stakeholder engagement and advocacy, and brings to the Forum a robust combination of practical experience and formal training in health, education and governance" said Dr Terry Crisp, Chair of the Forum.

All members of the Forum are looking forward to working with Amelia to strengthen its capacity to achieve its vision of better and safer health outcomes through high quality accreditation and assessment services for all regulated health professions within Australia.

Amelia joins the HPAC Forum in mid July 2025 and we look forward to opportunities for you to engage with Amelia, to continue our valued connection and collaboration with all the Forum's stakeholders.
